If it's time for nature and a little dirt under your nails, take this quiet no-through road for a Federation bluestone style home, all the get-up for the horses, and 5 head-clearing acres.

The cool kid's bonus is a heated and salt-chlorinated pool, and for those keen on riding time, the horse arena, shelters, 6 paddocks, and implement shedding make it all possible at home.

Fully repainted and renovated, the 1991-built 4-bedroom design is literally at home among the gum trees, expansive lawns, sprawling gardens, and prized golden elm shade.

Upon entry, hardwearing African Gold slate tiles pair effortlessly with its neutral themes, treading onward to the rear open plan living, kitchen, and meals where the Nectre
